

PRO BONO: | For the fun of it?

Yes. You want to mold young minds. You are passionate about business, finance and economics. You want to share your knowledge.

We know you so well.

Join other FPA members for the 2011

Junior Achievement Days

Wednesday, March 30 & Wednesday, May 18

8:00 AM - 12:00PM

Hamilton Elementary School, 1 Main Gate Road, Novato

Teach a series of 5 lesson plans about workforce readiness, entrepreneurship and financial literacy, to students at varying grade levels. Volunteering involves a minimal time commitment. You are trained in a one hour conference call and provided with a complete lesson plan and classroom materials with step-by-step instructions on how to present each lesson. Plus, you are encouraged to share your own real world experience! We need you for one or both events!

{Contact: Nate Eddinger at nate.eddinger@gmail.com}

Make Junior Achievement Day a team building opportunity for your office!

For more information about volunteer opportunities visit: FPASf.org's Pro Bono

Make Time • Help Your Community • Have Fun
Do Something Rewarding
Contribute to the Profession

FPA
FINANCIAL PLANNING ASSOCIATION
OF SAN FRANCISCO

The Heart of Financial Planning™

PRO BONO
COMMITTEE