5:30 – 7:00 p.m.

Don't miss out on your chance to meet with CFP Board's leadership!

Richard P. Rojeck, CFP®
CFP Board's Board of Directors

Kevin R. Keller, CAE
CFP Board's CEO

We will share updates on some of CFP Board's current activities and engage you in discussion about issues of importance to the financial planning profession, including CFP Board's national public awareness campaign and financial services regulatory reform.

Most importantly, this event will give us a chance to listen to you and your colleagues. It will be held in an open format to allow participants to address the issues of most concern to them, and to provide CFP Board's leadership the chance to connect with the CFP® professional community in the Bay area.

Complimentary online registration and additional information is available at:

www.CFP.net/connections

Our discussions can only benefit from a diversity of viewpoints, and the perspectives of CFP® professionals and those working toward attaining CFP® certification are especially valuable to CFP Board's work. Registration is open to everyone involved in the financial planning profession, including those who don't currently hold CFP® certification.

Complimentary refreshments will be served!

Please make plans to attend and encourage your colleagues to join us at this important meeting. If you have questions, please contact CFP Board at 800-487-1497 or events@cfpboard.org
